IT'S ALL RELATIVE

This autumn the Juniors will be getting physical!

Forget scripts and stage directions, this term is about learning to use one of the biggest tools available to an actor; the body.

Inspired by Riding Light's new show, Simeon's Watch, we will be exploring relationships, time and memory. What does it mean to be a part of a family? What does it mean to get older? And how do we show this physically? Using the ideas of physical theatre practitioners such as Boal and Frantic Assembly as our guide, we will create our own response to age old questions. If the thought of movement makes you shiver, do not fear, this course is for everyone, join us even if you have two left feet!

Every Monday Evening 6.30-8pm

Term Dates:

Monday 12th September – Monday 12th December
(excluding half term week: Monday 24th Oct and the Seniors Production Week: Monday 5th Dec)

Applications:

Cost: £80 (Bursaries are available, please ask)

Course Applications & Payment Due : Friday 16th Sept

Bursary Applications Due : Friday 9th Sept

MACBETH

School yrs

"Something wicked this way comes"

That's right, this autumn term, in their new Tuesday night slot, the Seniors will be tackling "The Scottish Play". This is one of Shakespeare's best and most loved plays. Think ambition, betrayal, murder and the dire consequences of lives lived on the edge. This play is no walk in the park and nor will our adaption be. Not satisfied to settle with the traditional approach we will be stripping this play back in order to re-build our own gritty, contemporary and relevant piece. All we need are enthusiastic performers!

Every Tuesday Evening 7-9pm

Term Dates:

Tuesday 13th September – Tuesday 13th Dec
(Excluding half term week: Tuesday 25th October)

Applications:

Cost: £80 (Bursaries are available, please ask)

Course Applications must be returned by Monday 4th July

Macbeth Production Essentials:

Please note that since this is a production term we expect all cast to attend a pre-rehearsal workshop on Thursday 7th July (7-9pm). All participants must commit to learning lines and attending the following rehearsals.

Saturday Rehearsals:

Sat 15th October 10-4pm

Sat 12th November 10-4pm

Production Week:

Monday 5th December : Tech Rehearsal

Tuesday 6th December : Dress Rehearsal

Thursday 8th – Saturday 10th December : Performances

ACTING UP!

FAMILY MATTERS

ages
14-18+

(For those with additional needs or disabilities)

From ancient times, family relationships have been at the heart of great drama. Fighting for them, fighting with them, even fighting to build a family of our own - whatever shape family we live in, the people we share our lives with can have a huge effect on how we think and feel. Families are a source of love, conflict, comedy, strength; they make us laugh, they make us cry, and (if we're lucky) they make us breakfast...

Inspired by the new Riding Lights play, Simeon's Watch, this term we will be using improvisation, music, physical theatre and puppetry to explore what family is really all about, have lots of laughs along the way, and create an original scratch performance the whole family can enjoy!

Every Wednesday Evening 6.30-8.30pm

Term Dates:

Wednesday 7th September – Wednesday 14th December
(excluding half term week: Wednesday 26th June)

Applications:

Cost: £70 (Bursaries are available, please ask)

Course Applications and Payment Due : Friday 16th Sept
Bursary Applications Due : Friday 9th Sept
